Abstract

This is the abstract of the paper. Note that the title and the abstract are the only things on the title page. This example shows two authors at different institutions. If information is the same for multiple authors, the authors can be listed as:

Mary Smith and Joe Jones
Name of Department
Name of Institution
City, State Zip
Contact email

1 Level 1 Header

This is the first section of the paper. It starts on a new page. Note how the left/right justification appears: text is justified on the left as well as on the right. This section cites a paper by Author A [1]. It then cites a paper by Author B [2]. The citations are clearly described in the reference section. Note that citation format can be determined by the author. This is only one example.

1.1 Level 2 Header

This is a subsection of Section 1. The figure in Figure 1 is of four stars.

This is the second paragraph of the subsection. Note that there is a blank line between the paragraphs and no indentation at the beginning of the second paragraph.

This paragraph starts after the figure.

1.1.1 Level 3 Header

This is a sub-subsection of Section 1. Table 1 contains data.

Field 1	Field 2
data 1a	data 2a
data 1b	data 2b

Table 1: Table Caption.

This paragraph starts after the table.
